

FRAUD DETECTION IN BANKING SYSTEM

Name: Laansia A

College: Sri Ramakrishna Institute of Technology

GitHub URL: https://github.com/Laansia/Fraud_Detection_Banking_System

Table Schema

BASIC LEVEL

1. Write a query to find all customers whose account balance is above ₹1,00,000.
2. Retrieve all transactions performed in the year 2025.
3. Find the total number of customers available in each city.
4. Display all employees working in each branch.
5. Find the total number of accounts maintained by each branch
6. Retrieve customers who do not have any loan.
7. Find all transactions where the amount exceeds ₹40,000.
8. Display the top 10 highest transaction amounts.
9. Find the total number of accounts available branch-wise.
10. Retrieve all blocked cards.
11. Find the average account balance grouped by account type.
12. Display the total number of transactions performed by each account.
13. Display all customers who have taken loans.
14. Display the latest 20 transactions.
15. Find customers who have more than one beneficiary.
16. Find the total number of accounts in each branch.
17. Display branches having more than 30 accounts.
18. Find the total balance maintained in each branch.
19. Display fraud types along with the total number of fraud alerts.
20. Display fraud types having more than 20 fraud alerts.

INTERMEDIATE LEVEL

21. Display customer details along with account details.
22. Display customer transactions.
23. Display fraud alerts with transaction details.
24. Display investigation details with employee names.
25. Display customer loan details.
26. Display all customers even if they have not taken any loan.
27. Display all branches along with their employees.
28. Create a view to display high-value transactions (above ₹40,000).
29. Create a view to display customer account details.
30. Display all records from the High Value Transaction view.
31. Display accounts having a balance greater than the average account balance.
32. Display the customer having the highest account balance.
33. Display customers who have not taken any loan.
34. Display branches that have customer accounts.
35. Display customer names in uppercase.
36. Display the square root of all account balances.

ADVANCED LEVEL

- 37. Display transactions performed in the current year.
- 38. Classify account balances using the IF() function.
- 39. Create a stored procedure to display all transactions of a specific account.
- 40. Demonstrate transaction control using commit
- 41. Demonstrate transaction control using rollback
- 42. Assign a rank to transactions based on transaction amount.
- 43. Assign a dense rank to transactions based on transaction amount.
- 44. Display the total transaction amount for each transaction type using a window function.
- 45. Display the average transaction amount for each transaction type using a window function.
- 46. Display the previous and next transaction amounts using lag() and lead().
- 47. Create a trigger to automatically block a card when a fraud alert is created.
- 48. Create an index on the status column of the Cards table to improve search performance.